The Barbie Diaries: High School Mystery. Platform: PC. October 30, 2006.

Barbie has something to write down, but first she has to go through a few adventures ... At school, all everyone did was talk about what had happened in the three days since the last article in the school paper. Barbie didn't listen to the teachers, she was very busy, she had too many assignments. Barbie wanted to do everything herself - she was her own secretary. Barbie, like every high school girl, had her own secret that connected them with her friends. But it was no ordinary girl's secret, it was something special that she didn't want to tell anyone.
